Active Shooter Incident Management Checklist:
Consistent with NIMS

The Active Shooter Incident Management Checklist is used in numerous DHS FEMA certified courses, serving as a common core of the response process. DHS FEMA certified courses go through an initial and subsequent recertification processes by the National Preparedness Directorate (NPD), National Training and Education Division (NTED). The processes include a mandatory National Incident Management System (NIMS) review to determine if the course and all materials are "Consistent with NIMS."

Following are the NIMS Course Review summary results:

NIMS Course Review	Result	Date
Active Threat Integrated Response Course (ATIRC)	Consistent with NIMS	19 OCT 2015
Active Shooter Incident Management (ASIM)	Consistent with NIMS	27 JUL 2016
Active Shooter Incident Management (ASIM)	Consistent with NIMS	21 JAN 2022

Conclusion

The conclusion of the NIMS Course Review for courses using the Active Shooter Incident Management Checklist found the material to be "Consistent with NIMS." The actual course reviews are included in the following pages.
